Program Description and Purpose

Continuing the Journey Through the Circle of Life engages professionals to provide comprehensive care to families through perinatal loss and the subsequent pregnancy following pregnancy loss. This conference of Hope, Healing and Prevention, provides learning, networking and sharing of resources on a beautiful September day in the foothills of the Colorado Rockies! Bring your resources to place on our sharing table.

Update yourself on relationship based care, a global look at pre-term prevention, current research on "The Maternal Brain", prenatal influence on the subsequent pregnancy, difficult pregnancy decisions and more.

Learn CPNL's beginnings and current professional programs. Hear the importance of Comprehensive Care from a diverse pregnancy loss and subsequent pregnancy parent panel.

Conference Objectives

At conclusion of the conference participants will:

- Define research advances on "The Maternal Brain"
- Describe the components of Relationship Based Care
- Explain how to approach issues surrounding Difficult Pregnancy Decisions
- Identify areas of Prenatal Influence on the Subsequent Pregnancy
- Learn the importance of Comprehensive Care from a loss parent panel
